

MICHAEL TIGHE

Managing Director

Mike is a Managing Director within GTM's lead tax practice based out of the firm's corporate headquarters in the Philadelphia Metro region. His broad range of experience providing federal, state, and international tax services to large multinational corporations enables him to deliver improved efficiencies and reduced costs to clients across a variety of industries.

Mike's personal attention to clients and his technical acumen have given him industry recognition as a trusted tax advisor. Since joining GTM in 2005, he has assisted clients with all types of corporate tax services including income tax compliance, ASC 740 provision calculations, due diligence, and tax planning.

Mike leads GTM's Tax Technical Committee, a group dedicated to researching, training and assisting both internal personnel and clients with complex tax issues. He also sits on the editorial board for the PICPA's CPA Journal and is the column coordinator for the Business Transformations (M&A) segment, to which he is a frequent contributor.

Prior to joining GTM, Mike was a senior tax accountant at a regional accounting firm responsible for performing compilations, reviews, and audits of all types of business entities as well as preparing their respective business and individual tax returns.

Mike currently resides in North Wales, PA with his wife, son, and daughter. His hobbies include spending time with friends and family, watching any type of sporting event, and actively playing basketball and golf.
