VP, Client Relations

As VP of Client Relations for GTM, Bob is responsible for developing and growing new relationships and acting as a liaison between clients and service line leaders. He is a strategist and relationship builder that lives by The Platinum Rule: “Do unto others as they’d like done unto them.”

Bob brings his unique corporate tax experiences to GTM’s team and clients. He began his career in the industry in 2004 as a Director with TaxStream and, as a leader, played an instrumental role in the company’s growth and success. In 2007, TaxStream was recognized by Inc Magazine as the 51st fastest growing private company in the U.S., having increased revenue by 2,378% over a three-year period.

After working through Thomson’s acquisition of TaxStream and the rebranding of it to OneSource Tax Provision, Bob went on to become a Senior Manager for the National Tax Management Consulting practice of Deloitte.

Moving on from his Big 4 experience, Bob went back to his entrepreneurial roots. In conjunction with two partners, Bob successfully formed a boot-strap company that developed and launched a corporate tax provisioning application. In addition to this venture, Bob also partnered with a tax controversy firm, where he focused on expanding their interest calculator and ASC 740-10 solutions.

Bob is a native New Yorker who currently resides in Summit, New Jersey with his wife and two young daughters. He is a master sailor who enjoys racing sailboats and taking family adventures on the water, in the woods, or on the slopes during his free time.
